Congratulations to our new Home and School Committee and Board of Trustees who were elected last week. We are so fortunate to have such a committed group of parents who volunteer their time and energy to benefit the progress and achievement of our students. Thank you to out-going Home and School and Board members, in particular Jo Raine for her services as Home and School Treasurer and Adrian Omelvena who is stepping down from his Property role on the Board of Trustees.

Regards,
Diane Scott

Certificates

Duffy Reading Award - Jacob for finding a spot and getting started straight away.
Student of the Week - Hunter for describing his brother with great character.
Best Foot Forward - Martha for braving the cold winter chills and keeping a watchful eye on our other tamariki.

Bouquets of the week

Jacqui Kete for her masterchef abilities on Marae Day.

Chris Wise for donating building mix for the concreting for the school house garage.

Adrian Omelvena for cleaning the chimneys.

Trevor Walshaw for sorting our leaky roof - the culprit - one tennis ball in the drain pipe!

Rob Scott for developing a school hazard register and hazard review checklist

Duffy Theatre

Last Friday students from Ahititi and Uruti joined our students and numerous parents to witness the talented cast of Duffy Theatre in their performance of Duffy's Time Travel Rescue. We were entertained with a lively show in which Duffy travelled to numerous times past to change history and save a life. There were some very funny moments particularly from one cast member who played numerous parts including a farmer's wife, a WWII soldier and a famous author - who said men can't multitask? We are very fortunate that the Home and School committee agreed to fund this initiative when our school decile rating rose.

Hi,

I would like to thank everyone who bought Girl Guide biscuits from me. The sales were a huge success and last week I received my biscuit badge.

As Girl Guiding New Zealand is not government funded but a registered charity we are lucky that 54% of our income is generated from our biscuit sales.

Guide biscuits have been sold for over 55 years and they are embedded in our cultural heritage as a true piece of kiwiana. They have been fantastically popular and are the envy of many organisations.

What you are actually buying goes towards providing Kiwi girls and young women with hands on experiences that allow them to discover their potential, develop confidence and skills, participate in programmes and contribute to their communities both now and in the future – your future!

Thank-you from Eve (Hagenson).
