What fun it was to have Harold and Megan at school last week. Key messages centred round social relationships with focus' on friendships, anti-bullying, that it's ok to be different, have opinions and have self-responsibility to be a good citizen. Ask your child how they are filling each other's 'bucket' with smiles, comments and actions.

Seniors also enjoyed having a laptop each to access the maths week activities and earn clues to find 'treasure'. Thank you Home and School for these wonderful purchases which enhance the learning opportunities of our students.

This week senior students are heading off to the Student Leadership Day in New Plymouth. Presenters include Sam Rapira a professional rugby league footballer who previously played for the New Zealand Warriors, budding artist and musician Jordan Barnes and actor Oscar Kightley so it should be an inspiring day.

Have a good week
Regards,
Diane Scott

FOUND in the playground - a distinctive key covered in a Simpson's character - if this key belongs to you please collect it from the office.

Girls' Brigade Cookies

These are individually wrapped cookies, suitable for school lunchbox snacks. They have reduced sugar and fat, and are approved by The Heart Foundation.

They sell for $1 each and will be a major fundraiser for two of our Senior Girls' Brigade girls to attend the International Girls' Brigade Camp in Whangarei in January.

Please see Mary-Elizabeth or myself for orders, or any of the Girls' Brigade parents.

Please support this good cause.
